

Graduation

Friday 9 December 2011

Welcome to the Otago Polytechnic Graduation Ceremony

Nau mai ki te whiwhika tohu mātauraka o Te Kura Matatini ki Otago

New Zealand National Anthem

TRANSLATION

E Ihoā, Atua
o ngā Iwi mātou rā
āta whakarongona;
Me aroha noa.
Kia hua ko te pai:
Kia tau to atawhai;
Manaakitia mai
Aotearoa.

*O Lord Jehovah,
God of all,
Listen to our humble plea
As we meet in love.
May your good grace be upon us;
May good things abound;
Defend and protect
New Zealand*

God of Nations, at Thy feet
in the bonds of love we meet;
hear our voices, we entreat
God defend our free land!
Guard Pacific's triple star
From the shafts of strife and war,
Make her praises heard afar,
God defend New Zealand!

Order of Ceremony

Karaka and Mihi Maiōhā

On January 28, 2004 Otago Polytechnic signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Papatipu Rūnaka ki Arai-Te-ūru (Moeraki, Puketeraki, Ōtākou and Hokonui). Since then there has been much progress in strengthening the relationship between the Papatipu Rūnaka and the Polytechnic. As part of this relationship Kai Tahu have been invited to participate in Graduation Ceremonies. Since March 2007, Otago Polytechnic Graduation Ceremonies commence with Karaka and a Mihi Maiōhā.

The purpose of the Mihi Maiōhā is to greet, in Māori, all visitors and all graduands to this place, while also acknowledging Kai Tahu's place in the Otago Polytechnic Graduation Ceremony. A Mihi Maiōhā is not surrounded by the formality of powhiri and differs from Mihi whakatau in that this ceremonial begins and ends with the woman's or women's voice through karaka (or karanga in Northern dialect).

The Mihi Maiōhā will contain an element of the recitation of the landscape and our tūpuna (ancestral names within it). It will briefly welcome all those attending the graduation to the place of those ancestors and will acknowledge that it is an honour for Kai Tahu to have been invited to participate in the graduation ceremony.

Following the Maiōhā there will be a waiata kī naki (song of support for the Maiōhā) E tu Kahikatea sung by staff and it will end with the karaka once more to signal its closure.

E tu Kahikatea

E tu kahikatea	Stand tall and firm like the kahikatea tree
Hei mau whakapai ururoa	Grasp all the good things
Awahi mai awahi atu	Support each other
Tātou tātou e	For each other

E tu e puriri	Stand steadfast like the puriri
Kaua takoto, kia reri	Do not be laid down, be in readiness
Awahi mai awahi atu	Support each other
Tātou tātou e	For each other

Awahi mai awahi atu	Support each other
Tātou tātou e	For each other

Academic Dress

The academic dress worn by all graduands participating in the ceremony was designed in 1994 by third year students of the Otago Polytechnic Diploma in Fashion and Design – Richard Moore (winner of the 1998 Smokefree Awards), Rebecca Vorrath and Carmen Shrimpton. By taking a Scottish-style Bachelors gown as inspiration, the designers maintained the traditional Celtic link with Dunedin, while adapting the unique colours and motif from the Otago Polytechnic shield. By combining these two influences, the students established an appropriately traditional but unique and very distinctive look.

The academic dress for Masters graduands comprises the blue gown, together with a satin hood and blue trencher with gold tassel, Postgraduate and Degree graduands comprises the blue gown, together with a satin facing and satin-lined hood, buttoned to the gown at the shoulders and a blue trencher. Honours graduands wear the blue gown together with a satin facing and a satin-lined hood with a blue strip around the edge and a trencher. The colour of the satin facing and hood lining denotes the qualification. Diploma graduands wear the blue gown together with a satin facing, and Certificate graduands wear the blue gown on its own. The sleeves and back yoke of the gowns are edged with gold braid, as is the outside edge of the hood.

The Ceremony

Members of the Council and staff of Otago Polytechnic enter the Regent Theatre in formal procession and take their places on the stage. The Chair of Council will greet the graduands, friends and guests of the Polytechnic. This is followed by the presentation of the awards.

Awards are presented by the School, with Degrees presented first, each degree graduand being “capped” by the Chair of Council and having their award presented by the Chief Executive. Following the degree ceremony Diplomas and Certificates are then presented alphabetically by School, with Diplomas read first followed by Certificates. Awards are presented by the Chair of Council. Graduands’ names are all read alphabetically by their respective Head of School.

Photographs

Arrangements have been made with McRobie Studios for an individual photograph to be taken of each graduand who crosses the stage at the Graduation Ceremony. Photographs will be taken as degrees are conferred and awards are presented.

These photographs will be available for purchase for $15.00 from the marquee on the First Church grounds, directly following the Ceremony. Frames and mattes with the Otago Polytechnic logo are also available. Photographs will also be available from McRobie’s Studio at 89 Bond Street on Sunday following the ceremony from 10.00am to 1.00pm.

Thereafter, you may write, email or phone McRobie Studios. Please advise the date of the ceremony, the graduate’s name and the page number they are listed on in the Graduation booklet. It is also advisable to add some extra helpful details such as, hair colour & length, any distinctive clothing from the waist up, such as suit or dress colour, tie, jewellery, male/female etc.

Appreciation

Otago Polytechnic is grateful for the interest shown in Continuing Education by the donors of awards acknowledged at this ceremony.

> Otago Polytechnic

Our Vision Ō mātou kaupapa tūtoro

Through our innovation in education and the outstanding experiences our learners enjoy, we will be recognised as New Zealand's leading polytechnic.

Our Mission Ō mātou whakatakaka

- We inspire learning as we develop capable practitioners for Otago and New Zealand
- Our graduates are work ready and prepared for participation in a global workforce
- People from all backgrounds and prior education achievements have opportunities to develop further at Otago Polytechnic
- We specialise in experiential learning at all levels from foundation skills to advanced professional practice, offering innovative programmes of quality and relevance
- Our communities influence what we do and how we do it, benefiting from our joint endeavours
- We are socially responsible, committed to deploying our resources in the interests of our immediate communities and a sustainable future.

Central Otago Wine

The evening's wine has been proudly provided by the Bannockburn Road Vineyard, some of the finest drops to come from Central Otago and produced by students and staff from Otago Polytechnic's Viticulture programme.
